May He Protect and Defend your Sacred Perſon as the Apple of His Eye; Eſtabliſh your Throne in Righteouſneſs; Cloth your Enemies with Shame; and confound all thoſe that ſhall Riſe up againſt You; may He Guide your Councils, and Strengthen your Hands to Finiſh all your great and Glorious Deſigns; to ſuccour your Allies till the Power of the Common Enemy ſhall be Reduced; to Reſtore and Secure the Tranquillity of the Proteſtant Churches abroad; and (which we are ſure will be your moſt Grateful Care) to ſupport the beſt, the moſt Ancient and Apoſtolick Church, your own Church, Madam, as well by Choice as Education; which is by Law Eſtabliſhed.

But ſince the Divine Providence has been pleaſed to ſpare us Your Royal Majeſty, and to ſeat you upon the Throne of your Anceſtors; with an Heart ſo entirely Engliſh, and a Soul ſo eminently Generous, we cannot but raiſe up our drooping Spirits, and with the greateſt Alacrity Congratulate Your Majeſties happy Acceſſion to the Crown, having full Aſſurances, That by the Conduct in Your Auſpicious Reign, Your Majeſty will ſo far ſuppreſs the Power of your own, and Europe's Enemies, that it will never for the future have occaſion to be called Exorbitant.

To Support Your Majeſty in your undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms againſt all Tyrants and Impoſtors, and to enable Your Majeſty to preſerve the Ballance of Europe, and protect the Proteſtant Religion, ſhall be our daily Prayers and Endeavours: For which Reaſon we will always ſend up ſuch a Repreſentative to Parliament, in whom we ſhall have ſpecial Confidence, that he will be ready to aſſiſt Your Majeſty in your Undertakings, ſo much for the Honour of theſe Nations, and the Security of the Eſtabliſhed Religion.

In, Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the Common Seal of our Corporation the Fifteenth Day of* April, Annoq; Domini 1702.

WE Your Majeſties moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Burghers of your Ancient Borough of Pontefract, do, with Grief unexpreſſible, humbly beg leave to Condole with Your Majeſty for the Death of the Greateſt King that ever any Nation was Bleſſed withal, and to whom, next (under God) we may attribute our Deliverance from Popery and Slavery; the Loſs of whom had been inſupportable to theſe Nations, had it not pleaſed God to bleſs us with a Queen, who has not only promiſed to uſe her utmoſt Endeavours to ſupport, but already ſhewn her Zeal for the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Religion, and Liberty of Europe. And we crave leave to Aſſure Your Majeſty, That we ſhall no longer think our Lives and Fortunes of any uſe to us, than whilſt we are able to defend your Sacred Perſon and Government, and Succeſſion to the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and other Your Majeſties Enemies.

May your Reign be long and proſperous; may you eclipſe the Glory of your Noble Predeceſſor Queen Elizabeth, by Confounding the United Powers of France and Spain, is the ſincere Prayer of Your Majeſties Dutiful and Loyal Burghers.

The Conſideration of having a Princeſs born amongſt us, endowed with ſo many Noble Virtues, and who has given ſuch repeated Aſſurances of Her Care and Concern for Her Native Country, diſſipates all our Trouble, and engages us moſt firmly to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of Your Majeſties Sacred Perſon and Government, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Diſturbers of the Peace and Tranquillity of your Kingdoms.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WHen we reflect upon the Heroick Actions of our late Dread Sovereign King William the Third, his expoſing his Sacred Life in ſo many hazardous Battles for the Peace of Europe, his making ſuch firm Alliances with great Potentates and States, to ſet Bounds to the Exorbitancy of the French King and his Adherents, and Governing his own Subjects by Law, we cannot but have his Memory precious, and condole his Death, which we humbly crave leave to do.

But when at the ſame time we reflect upon your Sacred Majeſties Acceſſion to the Government of theſe Kingdoms, and thoſe Gracious and Solemn Aſſurances made in Council, and from the Throne, to preſerve our Religion as by Law eſtabliſhed, our Laws, Liberties, and Properties; this revives and ſupports our Spirits, under that unſpeakable Loſs: There remains no more doubt in us, but that your Reign will be proſperous, your Government eaſy, and your Throne Flouriſhing; to which we do moſt heartily and affectionately Congratulate your Sacred Majeſty.

May Your Majeſty ſway the Septer of theſe Kingdoms in Peace, and Plenty; may you have Victory over all your Enemies, and be full of Honourable Succeſs all your Days, and Crowned with Glory after Life: And may God Almighty, in his good time, make you a Joyful Mother of happy and ſucceſsful Children to ſit on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, will be the conſtant Prayers of Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and moſt Obedient Subjects.

The gracious Aſſurances which Your Majeſty is pleaſed to give us, and the whole Nation, That Your Majeſty will Maintain the Government in Church and State, as by Law it is eſtabliſhed, Preſerve and Cultivate all Alliances abroad, and Secure and Defend the Succeſſion to the Crown, as it is ſettled by Law, fill our Hearts with the greateſt Joy and Gratitude. So good a Beginning, and ſo glorious a Diſplay of Royal Vertues, at your Entrance upon the Adminiſtration, preſage to us a moſt wiſe, juſt, and laſting Government over us; to which we ſhall always contribute the utmoſt Services in our Power.

That GOD would preſerve Your Majeſty from all Dangers, proſper your Expeditions, ſubdue and vanquiſh all your Enemies, and grant Your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us, is the Prayer of (may it pleaſe Your Majeſty) Your Majeſties moſt obedient, moſt loyal, and moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The mighty Concern Your Majeſty has always ſhewn for the true Intereſt of your Country, the affectionate Zeal you have always had for the Proteſtant Religion, as by Law eſtabliſhed in the Church of England, the many and great

Dan-

Dangers you have so generously exposed your self to for the sake of them, your exemplary Piety, your matchless Wisdom, together with the Gracious Declarations you have been pleased to make to your People, create in the Hearts of all your Subjects an assured Confidence, that your Reign will be very happy and prosperous, both to your Subjects at Home, and to your Allies and Confederates abroad.

We shall never be wanting, Dread Sovereign, as in Duty and Gratitude bound, in our dayly Prayers to Heaven, earnestly to beseech Almighty God, by whom Kings and Queens Reign, long to preserve your Royal Person to Reign over us, to bless your Councils and Arms, to the Reducing the overgrown Power of France, and establishing the Peace and Liberties of Europe: And we assure Your Majesty, that we will, both by our Doctrine and Example, teach Obedience and Loyalty to the People committed to our Charge, and always to the utmost of our power Defend Your Majesties Lawful and Rightful Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all your Enemies whatsoever.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE cannot but bear a share in the general Grief for the Loss of our late King, whose Memory will ever be Glorious, for securing to us our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and so good a Successor to take care of them after him: 'Tis from this last that we hope for a long Continuance of the former Blessings; and therefore we most heartily Congratulate Your Majesties happy Accession to the Crown, which must be matter of Joy to all that are truly Well-wishers to the Common Cause, against the Exorbitant Power of France.

From the constant Tenour of Your Majesties Life, your Affection for your Country, and your Zeal for the Government establish'd in Church and State, we promised to our selves all the Fruits of a prudent Administration; but the Assurances You have given under your Sacred Word can leave no doubt with any Body, but every thing will be done for the Publick Good, whilst Your Majesty is pleased to streighten your self, rather then not ease your People.

Such unparallel'd Grace and Goodness is not to be requited; but we shall never fail of making all possible Returns of Duty and Fidelity, not only in defending Your Majesties just and lawful Right and Title, and the Succession in the Protestant Line as established by Law, against the Pretended Prince of Wales, and all others whatsoever, but in endeavouring to the utmost of our Power to enable Your Majesty to carry-on the great Work that You have undertaken.

And we sincerely pray to GOD, That the Glory of Your Majesties Reign, by the Length and Prosperity of it, by your establishing the Succession to the Crown of these Realms in the Protestant Line, as now settled by Act of Parliament, on a firm and lasting Foundation, by the Success of Your Majesties Arms, against the Powers of France and Spain, united for the Destruction of the rest of Europe, and by other your Heroick and Virtuous Actions, may extinguish the Splendor of that of your Great Predecessor, Queen Elizabeth; And that Your Majesty may be blessed with a numerous Issue to inherit your Royal Virtues.

By Your Majesty therefore (thus reigning in the Hearts of your Subjects) we may reasonably expect to see the Power of France reduced, the Hopes of the Pretended Prince of Wales extinguished, the open and secret Designs of all your Majesties Enemies defeated, and the Glory and Honour of your Realms and Dominions enlarg'd and flourish.

For the effecting whereof, may Heaven direct your Councils, prosper your Undertakings, and give You Health, and a long and auspicious Reign over us.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed the Seventeenth Day of April, in the First Year of Your Majesties Reign, Anno Domini 1702.

WE Your Majesties most dutiful and obedient Subjects humbly beg Leave to Condole with Your Majesty the Death of the late King, of glorious Memory, and also to Congratulate Your Majesties most happy and peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, notwithstanding all the malitious Designs and Contrivances used to defeat Your Majesty of your undoubted Right.

We cannot express the great Satisfaction which Your Majesties most gracious Declaration gave us, in your Resolutions to maintain and preserve the Constitution of the Government in Church and State, as by Law established, and also Your Majesties transcendent and unparallel'd Goodness, by Your Majesties bountiful Contribution, (in this Conjuncture) to appropriate so considerable a Sum out of Your Majesties own Revenue, towards the present Publick Charge, whereby Your Majesty hath manifested to the World, That Your Majesties Heart is entirely English, to the infinite Joy of all Your Majesties loyal Subjects.

And we do humbly assure Your Majesty, That we will be always most ready and willing, with our Lives and Fortunes, to support Your Majesties Crown and Dignity, against the Pretended Prince of Wales, and his Adherents, and all other your Enemies whatsoever:

Praying constantly, That GOD Almighty would grant Your Majesty a long and happy Reign over us.

Vienna, April 22. The King of the Romans's Equipage will be ready by the beginning of the next Month, and he intends to go about that time to the Upper Rhine; to take upon him the Command of the Imperial Forces. A great number of Recruits, both Horſe and Foot, are ſent to Italy. The 6 Regiments of Horſe andot Huſſars, lately ordered to be raiſed, are compleat, and have begun to march, ſome towards the Rhine, and the reſt to Italy. The French Frigats which cruize in the Adriatick Gulph, have Orders to ſeize all ſuch Ships as they ſhall meet with, having any Proviſions on board for the uſe of the Imperial Army. The laſt Advices from thoſe Parts ſay, a Commiſſary of the Emperor's Cuſtoms on the Coaſt of Dalmatia, having got together ſome Country People, ſurprized one of the Frigats, which was put into the Iſland of Lienna, killed the Captain, with moſt of the Ship's Crew, and took the Lieutenant and 10 Men Priſoners.

Francfort, April 30. Prince Lewis of Baden continues encamped at Langenkandel, where his Army daily encreaſes by the coming up of more Imperial and Palatine Forces. The Forces of the Upper Rhine, which were drawn together at Wisbaden, are ordered to join the Imperial Army; And the Forces of the Circles of Swabia and Francomia, and of the other Circles, that lately entred into the Grand Alliance, are all marching to do the like. Prince Lewis of Baden having Advice, That a Body of French Forces were marching by the way of Weiſſenburgh and Lauterburgh, to reinforce the Garriſon of Landau, he ſent out a Detachment to Weiſſemberg, upon whoſe Approach the French retired to Haguenau with ſuch Precipitation, that they left behind them their Forage and Ammunition. The German Forces have alſo taken poſt at Belicham, Belheim, Relſheim, and Herſheim, ſo that Landau is quite blocked up. The Imperialiſts have ordered the Inhabitants of the Country of Alſace to bring in a certain quantity of Forage for the uſe of their Forces. The Bridge of Boats at Spires is to be removed to Lauterburgh, and the flying Bridge to Philipsburgh. Several Officers belonging to the Imperial Artillery paſſed by here this week, with 400 Horſes for the uſe of the ſaid Artillery, going to the Imperial Camp. Marſhal Catinat is daily expected at Strasburgh. We hear, the Saxon Forces which the King of Poland has put into the Emperor's Service, are marching towards Italy. Count Styrum, General of the Imperial Horſe, came hither 3 days ago from Vienna, and the next day went on towards the Lower Rhine.

Cologne, May 2. The Elector of Cologne marched from Bon the 28th paſt with about 6000 Men, 9 Pieces of Cannon, and ſome Mortars, and 7 Wagons laden with Bombs, towards Siegberg, in order to attack the Palatine Forces poſted there; but not being able to paſs the River Sieg, which was extreamly ſwelled by the late Rains, they contented themſelves with plundering ſeveral Villages in the Country of Berg, and ſo returned to Bon; theſe Troops have likewiſe plundered Rhynmagen and Oberwinter, two ſmall Towns above Bon, on this ſide the Rhine, which belong to the Elector Palatine. Count Tallard is ſhortly expected at Bon. A Party of the French Forces in Gelderland has plundered Stolberg, near Aix la Chapelle, belonging to the Elector Palatine. A Party of his Electoral Highneſs's Forces has taken the Counts of Aſpremont and Linden, and ſeveral other Priſoners. The Diet of the Circle of Weſtphalia, which is met here, reſolved yeſterday to enter into the Aſſociation lately made between the Circles of Auſtria, Suabia, Franconia, and the Upper and Lower Rhine; and they intend likewiſe to enter into the Grand Alliance, which the are to conſider of this day.

Hamburgh, May 2. The King of Sweden, according to our freſheſt Advices, continues his March directly to Warſaw, which has greatly alarmed the Court there. The Swedes diſperſe in the Countries through which they march a Placart, by which the King of Sweden exhorts all the Inhabitants to remain in their Houſes, promiſing his Protection to all that ſhall do ſo, and threatning to deſtroy the Houſes of all that ſhall forſake them. The Ambaſſadors of the Republick of Poland are to have Audience of the King of Sweden at Grodno; but 'tis ſaid he will not give an Anſwer to their Propoſals before he is come with his Army to Warſaw. Letters from Lithuania ſay, a ſtrong Detachment of Swedes was marching to attack Prince Wiſnowisky, who lately defeated one of their Parties; and ſome Letters from Koningsberg ſay, the Swedes had defeated his Troops, and taken him Priſoner. The Swediſh Forces in Pomeren begin to move towards their Camp near Stettin; the Forces of Holſtein are likewiſe drawing together in order to join them. They write from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark has ordered 4000 Men to be ſent to Holſtein, who will ſhortly be followed by 5000 more; and that he intends to take a Journey thither about the beginning of next Month.

Weſel, May 2. The Army of the Allies before Keyſerſwaert has lately been reinforced by ſeveral Battalions of Foot drawn out of this Place, and of ſeveral other Gariſons; Their Batteries fire conſtantly, and have made a conſiderable Breach; and now the Rains (which have proved a great hindrance to them) are ceaſed, we daily expect to receive an account of their having aſſaulted the Counterſcarp. The Marſhal de Boufflers continues at Zanten; he has ſent a Detachment of his Forces to Burick, a ſmall Town on the other ſide the Rhine, a little above this place; upon which our Bridge of Boats on the Rhine is taken away, and ſeveral pieces of Cannon are planted along the Rhine. We hear the French have plundered ſeveral Places in the Dutchy of Cleves, which lie on the other ſide the Rhine. The King of Pruſſia has appointed Monſieur Tetteau, his Chamberlain, and Monſieur Blaſpiel, to receive in his Name the Homage of the States of the Country of Meurs.

From the Earl of Athlone's Camp at Clarenbeck, May 2. Major-General Dompre being ſent out from hence laſt night with 1000 Horſe, met this morning a Party of about 600 French Horſe, whom he attacked, and totally defeated, killing 200 of them on the ſpot, and taking near as many Priſoners, among whom are a Lieutenant-Colonel who commanded the French Party, and 5 or 6 other Officers; On our ſide, not above 30 Troopers and Dragoons were killed. Eleven Engliſh Battalions, which were encamped near Roſendael, joined us this morning.

Paris, May 6. A great many Privateers are fitting out in the French Ports, and 'tis ſaid, about 100 Commiſſions are already diſpatched for this purpoſe. The Chevalier John Bart died at Dunkirk the 27th paſt; and 'tis ſaid, Monſieur Pointis is to command the Squadron which is fitting out there in his place. The Sieur Jordan, Envoy of the King of Poland, being recalled, left this Place 3 days ago, in order to return home. The Venetian Ambaſſador has been ſeveral times in Conference with the Miniſters of this Court, concerning the French Frigats that cruize in the Adriatick Gulph, which gives great Offence to the Republick, as being a Violation of their Sovereignty over that Sea. This Court is not very well ſatisfied with the Duke of Savoy, who would ſend this Year but half the number of Forces to the Aſſiſtance of the French in Italy he did the laſt, and yet inſiſts to have the ſame Subſidies continued. Letters from the Duke of Vendoſme's Quarters at Nazaro of the 28th paſt give an Account, That he intended to march the 2d Inſtant, and to repaſs the Po at Cremona, with the French Forces quarrered in the Country of Piacenza, which conſiſt of 25 Battalions, and 12 Squadrons, and to advance towards Sabionetta, in order to ſupply that Place with Proviſions. The French reckon they ſhall have in the Field in Italy this Campaign an Army of 62 Battalions of Foot, and 101 Squadrons of Horſe, beſides the Spaniſh Forces, and thoſe of Savoy. The Germans continued to intrench themſelves along the Po and the Oglio; they had received from Germany a Reinforcement of 4000 Men, and expected ſhortly 10000 more. Prince Eugene had ſent a Meſſage to the Prince of Vaudemont, Governor of Milan, to acquaint him, That he had received Orders from the Imperial Court to agree upon a Cartel for the Exchange of Priſoners. Here has been a Report of Prince Eugene's Sickneſs and Death, but it proves altogether groundleſs.

Portſmouth, April 24. Yeſterday being St. George's Day, and the Day of Her Majeſty's Coronation, it was obſerved here with great Demonſtrations of Joy; at Two in the Morning the Bells began to ring, and ſo held all day; the Standard was diſplayed from the Magazine and Town-Hall; alſo Four other Flags at each corner of the Town-Hall, and a Pendant upon each Pinacle of the Church-Tower, and a Flag in the middle; the Ships at Spithead were adorned with Flags, and Pendants of all ſorts, which made a very Noble Show; About Three a Clock the Ships at Spithead diſcharged their Guns, (as did thoſe in Harbour) and Volleys of Small Shot from the Ships every minute: Between Four and Five in the Afternoon Sir Stafford Fairborn, with moſt of the Captains of the Fleet, came aſhore, and the Commiſſioner of the Dock, and his Officers, came to Town, and went all to the Town-Hall, where the Mayor, Recorder, and the reſt of the Corporation, being ready to attend them, the Mayor gave them a very ſplendid Treat, and after Supper Her Majeſty's Health was drank, the Guns of the Platform being at the ſame time diſcharged. The People, who were got together in great Crowds in the Streets, repeated their Acclamations of Long live Queen ANNE. The Night ended with Ringing of Bells, Bonfires, and Illuminations in every Houſe. The Ships at Spithead made a very Glorious Show at Night, hanging out Candles as thick as poſſibly they could be hung, and ſome firing ſeveral Sky-Rockets.

Whereas ſeveral Pieces of Plate, as Diſhes, Trencher Plates, Knives, Forks, Spoons, and Salts, together with Pewter of all ſorts, Table Linnen, and ſeveral other Neceſſaries, which were provided and uſed in Weſtminſter-Hall at Her Majeſty's Coronation Feaſt on the 23d Inſtant, have been taken away from thence, and are yet concealed: All Perſons who have any of Her Majeſty's Goods of what ſort ſoever in their Cuſtody, are hereby required forthwith to bring them to Whitehall, and there give Notice of the ſame at Her Majeſty's Board of Greencloth, upon pain of being proſecuted according to Law; And if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall there make Diſcovery of any ſuch Her Majeſty's Goods ſo unlawfully detained by any Perſon whatſoever, they ſhall receive 12 d. per Ounce for all the Plate recovered, and ſo proportionably for any other Goods.

For making up a true Record of the Claims at Her Majeſty's Coronation, all Perſons who claimed to perform any Service in Weſtminſter-Hall at or about the time of Dinner, are to return to the Heralds, or to Lawrence Cromp Eſq; their Deputy Regiſter, at the Heralds Office near Doctors-Commons, London, a true Account how and by whom their ſeveral Services were performed, on or before Monday Evening the 4th of May next, to the end the ſame may be drawn up in Form, and preſented to the Court of Claims at the next Sitting, which will be on Wedneſday the 6th of May.
